Voyager
Original World Music

Marianne Payette Carter is a songwriter who believes world travel inspires and informs a cultural triangulation that can find the common ground in us all. Also a member of the Celtic trio Rowan, she teaches guitar, voice, and violin at Prairie Music, her studio in Lawrence.

Leo Bosch makes and repairs fine stringed instruments (including those he's playing tonight) at his shop The Versatile Workbench. When not traveling with Voyager he "banjers" with the Bluegrass band the Midday Ramblers.

John Thompson is a chef at Maceli's Catering. In addition to his Voyager duties, he cooks up great ballroom dance music with the Prairie Dogs band.

Derek Sharp has been drumming for 26 years. He is a purveyor of fine world percussion (including his own hand crafted "TreeHouse" Drums) at his drum shop Supersonic Music. Tonight he will be using drums from 9 countries.

"We're on the road to peace if there's to be one.

We've got to take a step or there will be none."

We would like to thank our sponsors for their support in presenting our performance.

Voyager
Original World Music

Travel the world with Voyager, a fresh and original voice in World Music.

Midwest roots and travels to Bali, Morocco, Ireland, Jamaica, and India give Voyager's music a unique perspective and a rockin' world beat.

In league with a coterie of fine musicians (dynamic accordionist John Thompson, inspired banjo and slide guitar artist Leo Posch, and expressive world percussionist Derek Sharp) Marianne Payette Carter weaves intriguing vocals and global rhythms and textures into an uncharted cultural fusion that finds the common ground in us all.

Sometimes quirky, always eclectic, Voyager is adventurous, eloquent, and just plain fun.
